ABOUT THE ARTIST:

The Baxter Creek Carvers studio is nestled in a little patch of maples on the banks of the infamous Baxter Creek where Sensei Sanford lives, plays and raises his young son. As a life-long practitioner of karate-do, the sensei has been quoted saying, " I have been doing karate for so long it seeps out of most things I put to task". Thus, his passion for carving has also become an extension to the art.

As this new life of carving is inspired by his zen surroundings, the sensei has grown a strong desire to give back to the federation that has given him so much. So, as a service to the federation the first Wado Kai log was made. This was followed by a number of prototypes being carved, with different woods and treatments as well as new stencils used. For those Shintani members who purchased logs during the beta testing, you are highly appreciated.

Now that the line has been established, it is being sold exclusively through the S.W.K.K.F. Central Purchasing Store, and Sensei Sanford is donating 15-20% of every piece sold back to the federation, as well as dedicating time in his studio for at least three seasons of the year to maintain a stock of Shintani carvings.

About the Woods

All wood used by Baxter Creek Carvers (unless specifically imported) is harvested from a fire wood lot and repurposed. Worthy logs are rescued from the splitter. The small Wa pieces are salvaged forest rot, which provide for brilliant spalting of the wood when a solid chuck is found beneath the decomposition as the grains are always spectacular.

About the Stones

Most carvings that leave the studio have an earth component to them. The river rocks are a part of the Shintani Carving Line for two reasons: one, they complete the harmony of the piece and two, each season the sensei and his son together gather stones from the shores of Lake Superior (the grounds for his introduction to Wado Kai), so as he places them into the logs he is humbled by thoughts of his son and of his SWKKF origins, which reminds him why he does what he does.

FAQ's:

Can I get a discount if I don't require shipping?

- Yes, if you live in the Kawartha Lakes region or know of someone travelling to or from the region who could pick-up/deliver your log, you will receive a discount of the shipping costs. Please notify Central Purchasing of this at the time of order placement.

Can I contact the artist directly to discuss specific requests?

- Yes, once you have placed your order or inquiry with Central Purchasing, your email will be forwarded to Sensei Sanford directly to answer specific questions regarding products.

Can I order a log with different characters on it than the ones pictured?

- Unfortunately at this time we only have stencils for the above-pictured logs. But please email suggestions to senseisanford@gmail.com and we will take them into consideration!

Can I get a log with a different finish than what is pictured?

- Yes. The regular finish is an acid wash plus clear coat and optional river stones, but you can also request the clear coat without acid wash, with or without stones. For more details, please email senseisanford@gmail.com.

Can I get a discount if I order multiple logs?

- As each log is handcrafted and costs are determined by the time and materials required to create each piece, discounts on multiple logs are not available at this time.

How soon will my log be delivered after I place my order?

- Your log will be shipped as soon as it has been crafted. Depending on the volume of orders in cue at any given time, the estimated delivery time may vary from days to weeks. Once you have placed an order or inquiry, Sensei Sanford will give you an estimated date of completion.

I have not received my shipment by the estimated date. What should I do?

- You can track your shipment online with the tracking number provided to you upon shipment of your item.
  - If your shipment has not arrived on time, contact the postal service directly with your tracking number.
  - If your shipment is delayed, the postal service will notify you of its whereabouts.
  - If your shipment has been lost or damaged, the insurance through the postal service will cover the cost of your purchase and will issue you a full refund.
  - If you have other issues with your shipment, please contact Sensei Sanford.
